Purpose of The Yearbook

Since school life is crowded with many activities of glowing youth, the Jackson Center High School teachers and pupils believe that the public should be informed of all phases relating to our school system. There are the eventful happenings and incidents in school room and playground, social affairs, jolly friendship and happy comradeship. Is it any wonder, then, that with the teeming interests, school days go all too quickly? School memories and associations should be a lasting joy throughout life. But alas in the stress and strain of maturity, these precious possessions dim and blur.

This should not be. It need not be. For the joyous days, the events and incidents of school life can be recorded permanently in a school yearbook to be preserved and treasured throughout life. Every line of it, read it in the years to come, will bring back a host of rich associations as clearly as morning sun dispels the mists.

Apart from the inestimable memento value of a yearbook, there is a host of reasons that make such a publication of primary consideration now. Besides its value as a running record of school history, it promises a spirit of unity; builds school loyalty; stimulates morale; and developes character. It instils deeper interest in school ideals and purposes.

We, the Class of 1950, being of sound mind, and in view of our impending departure from the esteemed halls of our Alma Mater, realize this document to be our last will and testament. We therefore solemnly and intelligently will and bequeath our last possessions as follows:

The Senior Class, as a body, wills its ability to keep quiet during registration, to Mr. Cooperrider (so that he may pass it on to future classes).
To the Junior Class we will our ability to do away with the daily visits to the office of Mr. Johnson on unpleasant errands.
To the Sophomore Class we will our golden, unreproachable habits.
To the Freshman Class we will our ability to skip school without being caught. (May they put it to the best advantage).
To the Seventh and Eighth Grades we will our good conduct grades, which were never questionable.
The Senior Varsity wills its basketball skill and teamwork to future Tiger teams.
Our individual treasures we bequeath as follows:
Carolyn Allinger wills her quiet nature to Jeanne Shaffer.

Prophecy

CAROLYN ALLINGER is leading a very happy life in Montra being the private secretary to its new mayor.

JAMES DUFF has inherited the "Duff Truck Line" and is now at his home office in Sidney. The girls still follow him around trying to get a look at him as they did in his high school days.

JAMES FRIES is playing professional basketball for the Jackson Center University. The team is in Europe playing exhibition games.

MARGY LOU GERBER is the new head nurse in John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore Md. We don't hear much from her but by the reports, she has never married. Guess her high school romance never quite wore off.

BARBARA GIES has fulfilled her one sole ambition: "Raising little Rosengartens."

DONALD GLICK is still trying to talk his way out of things. We wonder if he will ever run down.

ROSEMARY HAWKINS is the proprietor of Hawk-Shaw's Corner. The restaurant is a favorite "hangout" of all the college kids. However, she has never lost the desire to become a grade school teacher.

LOREN HEINTZ is still the County's No. 1 romeo.

RICHARD HELMLINGER and wife Ruth are at home to everyone at their farmhouse north of Jackson Center. They were voted the States most ideal couple at the Annual Farmer's Convention.

NEIL HOVIS has been quite prosperous since he is general manager of Hughes Market. He is still wooing the boss's daughter.

LORETTA KENDALL is now the owner of Rink's Motor Sales at Wapak. She specializes in Harley-Davidson motorcycles.

WILLIAM LENHART is still single and playing the field. Fun for all!

JAMES LEININGER has reached the height of his ambition. He has his own band, playing hot music on his sax and vocalizing in the James Leininger style. When he is not on tour, he beats a path to the Smith home.

RALPH SAILOR is now managing the Cincinnatti Reds and has won the world series pennant by his superb pitching of 19 straight wins.

CLARA MAE SMITH is now private secretary in the Jackson Center Creamery and waits rather impatiently for the Leininger Band to come home from tour.

WILLIS SWIGER has taken over the Poplar Knob Farm South of Montra.

TWYLAH WIESSINGER is now head secretary and full time bookkeeper at the Zimpher farm.

History of The Class of 1950

In the year 1938 a group of 38 boys and girls, excited at the prospects of the many adventures to come, entered the first grade. We were guided through our first year by Mrs. Maude Griffith. When we entered the second grade with an enrollment of 35, Mrs. Jewel Fullerton was there to help us. In the third and fourth grades the same 35 pupils were under the direction of Miss Guinivere Lanning. When we entered the fifth grade to be instructed by Mr. Floyd Hurley there were only 34 students and the number decreased to 28 in the following year when Mr. Hurley guided us through our 6th and last year of grade school. Mrs. Pauline Mittong helped 30 of us to become accustomed to a very confusing system of bells and classes during our seventh year and first year of Junior High. Under Mrs. Marguerite Johnson's careful guidance we completed our work in the eighth grade.

The class of 1950 entered the Freshman Class in the year 1946, with an enrollment of 27. Mr. Leo Lentz was our home room teacher for the first part of the year and when Mr. Glen Smith came he took over the task. We were entertained at the traditional Freshman and Senior Reception by the class of 1947. Both boys and girls competed in basketball and other sports during our first year in high school. In the scholarship tests the following pupils represented our class at Oxford: Science 9, Edwin Zorn; English 9, Margy Lou Gerber; Latin I, Joy Miars; Algebra I, Barbara Gies.

As Sophomores 26 pupils continued their studies with Mr. Glen Smith as home room teacher and aide. During this year we acquired our class pins and again competed in sports and other school activities. The boys won the intramural basketball pennant and the girls added one to it. On the scholarship team this year were: Latin II, Joy Miars; World History, Neil Hovis; English 10, Margy Lou Gerber; Biology, Dick Helmlinger; Bookkeeping, Barbara Gies. This year we presented the assembly program, "Christmas at Beanville School."

In the Junior year our class had an enrollment of 23. Under the home room direction of Mr. Donald Holt we participated in all sorts of activities. Our Junior Class Play--"Damsels in Distress"--was a success with the following people having roles in it: Twylah Wiessinger, Margy Lou Gerber, Clara Mae Smith, Rosemary Hawkins, Joy Miars, Lorretta Kendall, Jim Leininger, Jim Fries, Loren Heintz, Dick Helmlinger, Edwin Zorn, Neil Hovis. On December 19 of this year we received our class rings. We entertained the class of 1949 at the traditional Junior and Senior Banquet. The theme of the banquet was the "49'ers" in honor of the famous '49ers of a century ago. During this year we published the Ja Ce High Lights, the editors being Clara Mae Smith and Margy Lou Gerber. Also we published the annual Ja Ce Hi for the first time since 1942. The members of the scholarship team were: English II,

Barbara Gies; American History, Doyle Zwiebel. The Christmas Formal and many other dances during the year, were sponsored by our class.

In the fall of 1949 when we entered our twelfth and last year of school we had an enrollment of twenty two. Mr. L. L. Cooperider was our home room guide. During this year we again published the Ja Ce High Lights with the same two editors. We presented our Senior Play entitled "The Bashful Bachelor" on March 28. The following people were in it: Clara Mae Smith, Margy Lou Gerber, Carolyn Allinger, Bill Lenhart, Barbara Gies, Rosemary Hawkins, Twylah Wiessinger, Jim Fries, Doyle Zwiebel, Neil Hovis, Joy Miars, Edwin Zorn, Jim Duff, Loretta Kendall, Glen Wilt; Willis Swiger. During this year we made plans for our Senior trip to Washington, D. C. and surrounding points of interest. Plans were made to leave on May 28 and return June 7. We also decided to wear caps and gowns for our graduation exercises, the girls in white and the boys in black. Baccalaureate services were scheduled for May 21, and Commencement for May 22. We were entertained by the class of 1951 at the Junior and Senior Banquet on April 22.

Our class was always active in sports of all kinds. The climax of a successful career was the annual county tournament when our Tiger team won the championship. The first five players were Senior boys; Ralph Sailor, Glen Wilt, Jim Fries, Dick Helmlinger, and Bill Lenhart. The following boys have participated in sports during their high school days: Loren Heintz; Basketball, 3 years, Baseball, 4 years. Bill Lenhart: Basketball, 4 years; Jim Fries; Basketball, 2 years, Baseball, 4 years, Track, 2 years. Jim Leininger; Baseball, 1 year. Dick Helmlinger; Basketball, 2 years; Baseball, 4 years; Track 2 years. Ralph Sailor; Basketball, 4 years, Baseball, 4 years; Track, 4 years. Edwin Zorn; Basketball, 2 years; Baseball; 2 years. Willis Swiger was manager of the Basketball, Track and Baseball teams each for 1 year. Lester Wildermuth and Donald Glick each managed the baseball team for 1 year. Cheerleaders from our class were: Margy Lou Gerber, 4 years; Twylah Wiessinger, 3 years; Clara Mae Smith, 1 year; Jim Leininger, 1 year.

Barbara Gies, Rosemary Hawkins, Carolyn Allinger, Joy Miars, Loretta Kendall, Twylah Wiessinger, Clara Mae Smith, and Margy Lou Gerber were members of the Girls' Glee Club for 4 years. Doyle Zwiebel and Jim Fries were members of the Boys' Glee Club for 4 years and Glen Wilt and Jim Leininger for 1 year.

Seven boys from our class received their Future Farmer Degrees in the F. F. A. They are: Loren Heintz, Richard Helmlinger, Jim Leininger, Bill Lenhart, Willis Swiger, Lester Wildermuth, Glenn Wilt, One boy, Edwin Zorn, received his State Farmer Degree. In the F. H. A. only two girls from our class were members for one year. They are: Carolyn Allinger, and Loretta Kendall.

Seventeen members of our class completed their entire twelve years together. They are: Carolyn Allinger, Barbara Gies, James Fries, Margy Lou Gerber, Rosemary Hawkins, Loren Heintz, Richard Helmlinger, Neil Hovis, William Lenhart, James Leininger, Joy Miars, Ralph Sailor, Twylah Wiessinger, Glen Wilt, Willis Swiger, Edwin Zorn, and Doyle Zwiebel. Those who are graduating with us and who have joined us since the first grade are: Clara Mae Smith, Loretta Kendall, James Duff, Lester Wildermuth, and Donald Glick.

Our class motto is: "Success is Our Goal!" Our colors: scarlet and gray. Our flower: red carnation.

As we graduate and start on the journey of life, the memories brought back by our class history will always seem very precious.

"As our lives meet the bumps,
On the world's rocky shoal,
We remember our motto:
'Success is Our Goal!"

(Prophecy, cont.)

JOY MIARS is now singing at the Metropolitan Opera after making her successful debutant. We still see that she loves tall men. Could be from her high school days.

GLEN WILT just finished a book entitled, "How It Feels To Be Short."

LESTER WILDERMUTH is at home on his farm north and west of Jackson Center. He is still the bashful, shy person we knew in school.

EDWIN ZORN is known all over the U.S. for his purebred Angus. This, however is his second interest, for he still goes to that certain Arthur residence near St. Johns, Ohio.

DOYLE ZWIEBEL owns the Sprague's Creamery. He owns his own Cadillac but still won't take the girls out. Maybe someday girls!

Class Poem

Within the limits of this class,
We find the stalwart lad, the laughing lass,
The studious bookworm, glasses on nose,
The winking flirt with bells on her toes.
A sturdy athlete engulfed in fame,
The honors a high scholastic has gained,
A comical idiot and all he has feigned.
All within this graduating class.
From stalwart lad to laughing lass.
Seniors, our four years are ended,
With both pain and sorrow blended,
Now we on life's journey start,
With the tho't that we must part.
We cling to our dear old colors,
Picked out from all the others,
They gleam, the scarlet and the grey,
As we start out on the way.
We have struggled with a will,
For that far and distant hill.
As we leave these open portals,
We are but just human mortals.
Wondering what is yet to come,
Since we know our school life's done.
And all in all we are sincere,
Realizing what's good and loving the dear.
And thinking back our memory clears,
Remembering heartaches, quarrels, and tears.
We have learned our lesson well,
So to Jackson High we bid fond farewell,
And not individually, but united in one,
Forgetting all arguments, resigning all fun,
Today we set out, a class as a whole,
to fulfill our motto: SUCCESS IS OUR GOAL.

Class Song

"ALL THROUGH THE YEARS"

Verse: The time has come for our graduation,
Our goal is reached and our battle's won.
As time goes on we will always treasure,
The many honors we have earned,
And the many things we've tried to learn.

Chorus: All through the years,
We'll thank you Jackson High,
We hate to say goodbye, but we must.
All of the fun,
We've had with all of you,
Our friends and teachers too,
We'll miss so much.
For all they've done,
Thanks to our parents,
We owe so very much to you.
As we look back, with teardrops and a sigh,
We'll always love you, dear Jackson High.
